

Sri S.P.Tucker,IAS(Retd)

Chief Secretary to Govt. of Andhra Pradesh & Member Secretary, APSDPS

Satya Prakash Tucker is a Law graduate from University of Delhi. He is 1981 batch Indian Administrative Service officer. He held the post of Principal Secretary (Irrigation) from 2004 to 2010. In I&CAD he conceptualised and led the water reform agenda based on community-based self-management and the concept that water should be managed as a public trust instead of as an individually-owned private commodity. He has more than three decades experience in developmental planning and has several innovative approaches to his credit. He is Principal Secretary(Planning Department) since November 2010.