

Adithya Manimaran has 11 years of experience in logistics and commercial shipping. He started career in the industry with Maersk in frontline sales and gradually rose to the rank of Regional Sales Manager looking after East India, Nepal and Bhutan markets. Earlier, Adithya held various commercial positions within Maersk Line, and most recently he was Sales Manager for Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu region. His area of expertise is in multifaceted markets, reinforced by his extensive commercial experience in establishing and growing businesses in such markets, and in eastern coast of India in particular. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Commerce, and MBA in Finance and Management from Worchester University, London.