

Miss. Vinita Venkatesh, Director, Krishnapatnam Port Container Terminal

Vinita Venkatesh holds Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Statistics from the University of Bombay, and she is also an alumni of prestigious IIM, Ahmedabad. Miss Venkatesh is a member of The Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers, London. She has over 25 years of experience in the shipping industry and covers a wide range of specialisations from liner shipping and agency to ports, CFS and auto logistics. She has served as the Chennai Coordinator of the India, Pakistan and Bangladesh Conference (IPBC) and has been a Guest Faculty at the PSG Institute of Management, Coimbatore and the National Academy of Customs, Excise & Narcotics (NACEN), Chennai. She is Director of Krishnapatnam Port Container Terminal (KPCT) and steers business development for the port, which has shown exceptional growth in throughput by-passing industry norms, largely attributable to an innovative market approach. She also holds additional responsibility as Managing Director of Ocean2Door.
