

Syed Abdul Rahman, IRTS of 2001 Civil Services batch, has done double Masters in Transport Economics and Transport Planning from the University of Leeds, UK. Besides that he is M.Phil in French Literature. He was awarded Jubilee Scholarship by the UK Government in 2012 and he subsequently got CH2M HILL award for best academic performance by the U.S. Consultancy firm. In Indian Railways he has been in-charge of operations of important divisions of South Eastern Railway and worked as Deputy Chief Operations Manager (Planning and Project) in South Eastern Railway before joining CONCOR as the Senior General Manager of the Eastern Region.