

Mr. Ashish Kumar Gupta is the Managing Director of TM International Logistics Limited (TMILL), a joint venture company of Tata Steel Ltd, NYK Holding (Europe) BV & IQ Martrade of Germany, from June 2017. He joined Tata Steel in 1993 as Graduate Trainee and in 1994, was placed as Senior Officer and later as Assistant Manager in 1997 in FAP, Joda FAMD. Since then, he had worked in various departments at Tata Steel. In 1998, he was transferred to Cold Rolling Mill (CRM) as Assistant Manager. In 2001, he was re-designated as Manager Maintenance IEM at CRM and in 2002 was promoted as Process Manager (BAF and SPM), CRM. He was transferred to Business Analysis Group as Head Business Analysis FP in 2008. In 2009, he was transferred to Logistics System Department as Head (Logistics System). He was promoted as Chief (Customer Service Division) in Customer Service Division in 2011. In 2014, he was re-designated as Chief-Customer Service Division & Logistics. Mr. Gupta is a Member of Association of Supply Chain Professionals. He has been awarded as Supply Chain Executive of the year by Indian Chambers of Commerce in 2014. He has also been awarded with a patent on optimization of Batch Annealing Furnaces. Mr. Gupta has completed B.E. in Electrical from University of Roorkee in 1993 and subsequently completed General Management Program from XLRI Jamshedpur in 1998.