

Capt. Rakesh Prasad is a Master Mariner with about 37 years of diverse experience in the shipping industry. He started sea carrier by joining merchant navy training ship T.S. Rajendra in 1980, and has sailed on various types of vessels including Tanker and Gas Carrier until 2001. He took up ashore assignments in 2002 and started with teaching and later joined Transworld Group in 2003. He had a successful tenure as Marine Superintendent with ship management company Orient Express Ship Management from 2003 to 2005. He gradually elevated to the role of Vice President (Operations) with Shreyas Shipping and Logistics. Capt. Prasad has experience of varied field including ship owning, liner, logistics, supply chain management, operation, ship management, chartering and broking. He is also a member of The Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers.