

Mr L.N. Mallik
Executive Director (T & S)
Steel Authority of India Limited

Mr. Laxmi Narayan Mallik has long working experience in SAIL in various areas such as managing multiple units including major functional departments like Stores, Purchase & Contracts, Lease & Environment, Personnel & Coordination of Iron Ore & Lime Stone mines of SAIL, Coking Coal import, Shipping & Logistics issues of SAIL, coordination with Railways, Ports and State/Central agencies. He is a Post Graduate from JNU, New Delhi, and GDMM from IIMM, Bangalore; with MBA in HR. Mr. Mallik joined SAIL as Management Trainee (ADMN) in 1983; and now working as Executive Director (Transport & Shipping). He has attended training programme on Materials Management organised by British Steel, UK in 1995, and attended Specialised Management Programme on Sustaining Business Excellence through Competitive Advantage for Senior Executives organised by MDI, Gurgaon in France, Spain and Germany in 2010. Mr. Mallik had also toured Australia and Singapore in 2018 as a member of team of 6 senior executives of SAIL-RINL to study imported coal scenario with a view to secure the raw material source.