

Mr. V. Venkateswara Rao
Head (Shipping & Out Bound Logistics)
Vedanta Aluminium

V. Venkateswara Rao is the head of shipping and out bound logistics at Vedanta Aluminium. Mr. Rao has been associated with Vedanta for about 15 years. He has worked in various roles in the Vedanta group such as Balco, Vedanta (Lanjigarh unit) and Vedanta (Jharsuguda unit). He has versatile experience in all modes of transportation, including Road, Rail, Shipping, and plant logistics. Mr. Rao has played a pivotal role in the development of Aluminium Business of Vedanta group. He was associated with Lanjigarh project from inception till the plant produced a million metric tonne of alumina. For the last 4 years he is associated with the Jharsuguda unit, and playing a vital role for its expansion and handling of day-to-day FG logistics at the plant. He oversees 1 lakh TEU of container business of Vedanta along with shipping portfolio. He brings all the latest technologies into logistics operation at Vedanta. Mr. Rao holds Btech degree and MBA, and a double gold medalist.